

Lonergan University College

announces a Public Lecture

Martin Luther King's Response to Gandhi

to be given by

Peter Paris

Peter Paris is Professor of Ethics at Princeton Theological Seminary and author of The Social Teachings of the Black Churches. He is speaking at Concordia University in conjunction with Lonergan College's year-long seminar on The Works of Mahatma Gandhi (LUCC 399)

Dr. Paris will lead a seminar to follow up on the theme and questions of the previous evening on Wednesday, March 6

10:00 a.m.
at Lonergan College
7302 Sherbrooke St. W.

King completes formalities by posing for police "mug" photo. King and eighty-nine boycott leaders and participants were indicted under 1921 state law which made it illegal to hinder a lawful business without "just" cause.

"It was in the Gandhian emphasis on love and non-violence that I discovered the method for social reform...I came to feel that this was the only morally and practically sound method open to oppressed people in their struggle for freedom."

Martin Luther King

Tuesday, March 5, 1996
7:00 p.m.
Hall Building, Room 110
1455 de Maisonneuve W.

For more information contact the college at 848-2280

Concordia
UNIVERSITY